ACCEPT THIS OPPORTUNITY

Dr. Bradford Massey, County Health Officer, reports that during the week of November 13-18 there will be a representative of the United States Public Health Service visit the county, a physician who has an exceptional amount of experience examining chests. During his stay he will be glad to examine any persons in the county who so desire, quite free of charge.

It is of great importance for people to know the condition of their lungs, to discover if possible whether or not there exists beginning tuberculosis for if it is discovered early a person can readjust their method of living so as to correct such a condition. For this reason the Health Department considers itself quite fortunate in being able to secure Dr. Mahoney's services.

All persons are urged to avail themselves of the opportunity even if you consider yourself quite well and to have perfect lungs.

Chest clinics will be held in Bonne Terre, Flat River, Farmington, Desloge, Elvins, Leadwood and Bismarck at such times as will be published in next week's paper and by hand bills.

Miss Clara Murphy departed the latter part of the week for Chicago, where she accepted a stenographic position.
